I've risked my freedom and the safety of my family to get where I'm at , my company is private and i work 19 hour days , none of the shit my team has accomplished was easy . 3rd , what ever you and gage have going on is between you guys . You say they grow poison?? Everything I seen was beautiful. @tricktricks vouched for then and there team goes hard . The industry is forever changing and you have to adapt or you will drowned. You have a lot of hate in your post . You know how many people bootleg my brand ? Or use the name cookies ? Do I throw a fit ? No , I let my work ethic speak for me and kill em with success. I suggest you do the same. It's 2019 , fuck negativity . Much love and I hope you continue to win . 36m theshashcritic @gagecannabis premium gmo live rosin via @cookies.michigan cultivated and washed by @mankind_cannabis. I asked for their best hash and this is what I was presented at cookies michigan. 4 month old rosin from October smh. Fortunately it's GMO so it still has a decent aroma of chem and garlic but the texture and consistency of this product subpar. Very dry, potentially from improper storage but when I checked on the processors page this run done on 10/6/2019 looks terrible fresh as well. generally this is what you would describe as $35 work rosin for the Indiana and ohio custies. It carries a ninety dollar price tag at cookies. 2.5/5 this is the absolute epitome of the word mids.

I would love to be put into contact with whomever oversees Microbial Contamination prevention. WillowPure is being used by more cultivates every day as a Kill Step to ensure a pass result for state testing. Why even risk a failed test?

Friday 3:13 PM

Tell me more :)

Yesterday, 11:10 PM

I would be happy to, and as luck would have it I'm based here in MI not far from the Ferndale dispensary. When and where should we discuss further how WillowPure can benifet Gage Cannabis?

When I saw an ad for Gage Cannabis in Michigan I immediately thought it was referring to the craft cannabis company gage green which supplies high quality seeds to our patients and caregivers. Come to find out its a big corporate cannabis opportunist with barely any experience and inferior quality.

Gage Cannabis & Cookies to Launch Flagship Cannabis Dispensary in Toronto, Canada

NEWS PROVIDED BY
Gage Cannabis Co. —
Jan 27, 2022, 16:00 ET

DETROIT, Jan. 27, 2022 /CNW/ — Gage Growth Corp. ("Gage" or the "Company") (CSE: GAGE) [OTCQX: GAEGF], a leading high-quality premium cannabis brand and operator in Michigan, today announced plans to open a flagship Cookies dispensary in the heart of Toronto, Canada ("Cookies Toronto") on Saturday, January 29th, 2022 at 9am ET. Cookies, one of the best-known cannabis brands in the world, will be located at 278A Queen Street West. Cookies Toronto will offer Cookies and Gage branded products cultivated by their exclusive collective production partner, NOYA Cannabis Inc.

Cookies Toronto will become the 12th dispensary in North America operated by Gage and the first Cookies store in Canada. The flagship dispensary, operated by Gage through an exclusive partnership with Cookies, will carry the entire collection of Cookies products featuring hand-selected strains from rapper, entrepreneur and Co-Founder and CEO of Cookies, Berner, and his renowned breeder and cultivation partner, Jai. These hand-selected strains will include GP20, Georgia Pie, Medellin, Lions Mane, Soap and more. In addition to these iconic Cookies strains, the partnership will introduce additional Cookies brands such as Lemonnade, Minntz, Runtz, Grandiflora, Powerzzup, RTJ and Collins Ave. to Canadian adult-use consumers.

"Some of my favorite strains growing up originated from Canada - the { Nade } and { champagne Aka Pelli } were staples," said Berner, Co-Founder and CEO of Cookies. "It feels good to be in position to diversify the current flavor profile on the Canadian market, with a flagship store in Toronto. I think the Canadian connoisseur will be proud to have Cookies, and Noya already has our standards dialed in as far as cultivation goes, and made a powerful introduction for the Cookies brand in Canada. Introducing our customer journey to the Canadian markets is something I've been wanting to do for a long time now, and we hope Canada appreciates the attention our customers get and deserve while shopping at Cookies."

"We are super excited for the iconic launch of the first Cookies store in Canada," said Fabian Monaco, CEO of Gage. "Working with Berner and his team to finally introduce Cookies to the Canadian market validates the painstaking processes we've developed at Gage, and we're eager to provide Canadian audiences with our unique and engaging retail platform. Launching the first Cookies store in Canada will bring an unparalleled experience to our growing consumer community while offering direct access to one of the leading brands in the cannabis industry."
